Part III, Statement of Program Service Accomplishments:

General Purposes: To promote and encourage historical research; to supervise and manage the Historic Old Church Complex; to preserve and protect the buildings at the Complex; to collect and preserve records, relics, and other things of historic interest; to foster and promote public knowledge of and interest in local, regional and national history. The Complex is owned by the Village of Corrales, and the Society is responsible for managing all events taking place at the Old Church Complex, renting the facility, and cleaning and maintaining the structures to ensure safety of the lessees and guests.

Collections and Artifacts Care: Ensures the conservation and preservation of articles related to the history of the people, places and events critical to the Village of Corrales' history. The archives committee and other volunteers have accumulated hundreds of photographs, written and oral histories of the founding families of Corrales and cataloged this material for use in various community activities.

Education and Community programs: Create and implement the various programs, festivals and tours in and around the Old Church Complex, including but not limited to the monthly free speaker series, Heritage Day celebration, annual mudding day experience, and Heart of Corrales Festival in conjunction with the Village-wide Harvest Festival. These events draw locals and tourists of all ages to the community and to the Old Church. Workshops are provided to give attendees an opportunity to learn skills that have been passed down for generations and are unique to our culture.

Marketing and Communications: Provides marketing and public relations activities for the Old Church Complex, including media relations, advertising, social media, along with cultural tourism, graphic design, website, and a calendar of events. Prepare and distribute media materials promoting exhibits, events and programs to the print and electronic media. Oversee all advertising and marketing opportunities and promotional partnerships, develop marketing plans and secure all advertising for programs and events. Produce brochures, banners, signage, postcards, mailers and a variety of printed and electronic materials to represent the many events and programs and membership retention opportunities.

Docent Group: Holds the Complex open on Saturdays when other events are not scheduled. Free to the public and staffed by Docents who provide tours, local historical information and opportunities to purchase various publications that have been developed by the volunteers and printed by the Society for the historical edification of the Village. Handles refreshments for activities and events such as Speaker Series, Harvest Festival and annual meeting. Coordinates with neighboring Casa San Ysidro Museum to allow visitors to enjoy both properties when they visit the community.

Visual Arts Group: Hosts two art shows annually. The Fine Arts Show is held during the International Balloon Fiesta and brings visitors from all over the world to our unique village. The Holiday Fine Craft Show is held in the first part of December to showcase the works of local artisans and offers a great opportunity for visitors to experience the beautiful ambience of the Old Church.

The volunteers and board members, collectively, provide over 12,000 hours annually to perform all programs, activities, and events as well as all clerical, office and accounting involved with management of the property.
